

Scanning the Sky: 30 Years of Hawk Watching on Napatree Point

Read the story of Westerly's Joe Zbyrowski and his 3-decade long study of migrating raptors on Napatree. The article is written by Julie Maurer of the URI Coastal Institute and can be viewed HERE.

Listen to Mr. Zbyrowski describe his adventures in an interview by Julie Maurer and Jaclyn Witterschein. The podcast can be reached HERE.

An excellent scientific analysis of Mr. Zbyrowski's data was conducted by Joe Zbyrowski, Clara Cooper-Mullin and Peter Paton and was published in the book Napatree Point: A Decade of Stewardship. A copy of the analysis can be obtained HERE.
